

The uniform recording of patient data

Icare district nurse

icare

CHANGUNA BIJVANK

PROJECTLEADER ICARE (ESPRIA)

espria

icare

Counseling en care: age 0 – 100+

The uniform recording of patient data

Icare district nurse

Background and method

What was the reason for starting the project or research?

- Master Intergraded care – Problem analysis in your organization
- In 2017 implementation classification system Omaha – district nurse

Which approach has been used for the project or research?

- Literature study
- Fieldwork (interviews with district nurses, management and policy officers)

Results

What are important results of the project or research?

The district nurse of Icare does not uniformly record the data of the patient in the care files

Lessons learned

What conclusions have been drawn from the project or research?

- Knowledge shortage
- no motivation
- limited training opportunities and
- different way of learning

Solution:

- a re-implementation of the Omaha classification system aimed at knowledge development

Implementation in daily practice

The district nursing has a knowledge shortage about the Omaha classification system

New employee

The district nursing has the knowledge about the Omaha classification system and can record the patient data uniformly

- Short movie about Omaha & Icare and movie Omaha Stichting

- Workinstructions digital Omaha

- E-learning and digital manual

- Intranet: information classificatiesystem Omaha: including the results of the Omaha data analysis

- Team workshop classificatiesystem Omaha
- Questions classificatiesystem Omaha: Omaha coach
- Twice a year: teamassignment about recording data.

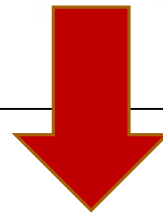

Measuring instrument to test the competence of the employee about the Omaha classification system

Five years from now.....

espria

zorggroepmeander

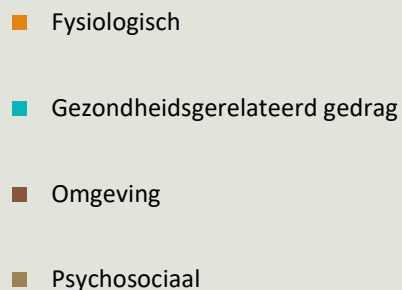

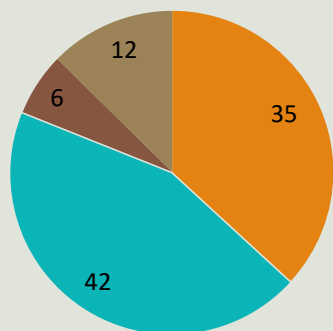

Espria Expertgroup Omaha

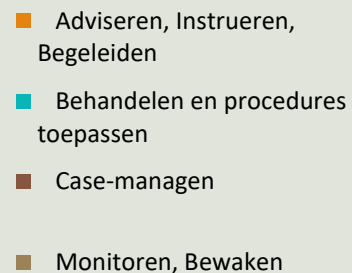

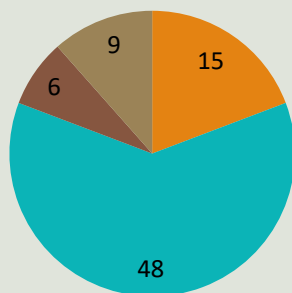

Data-analysis

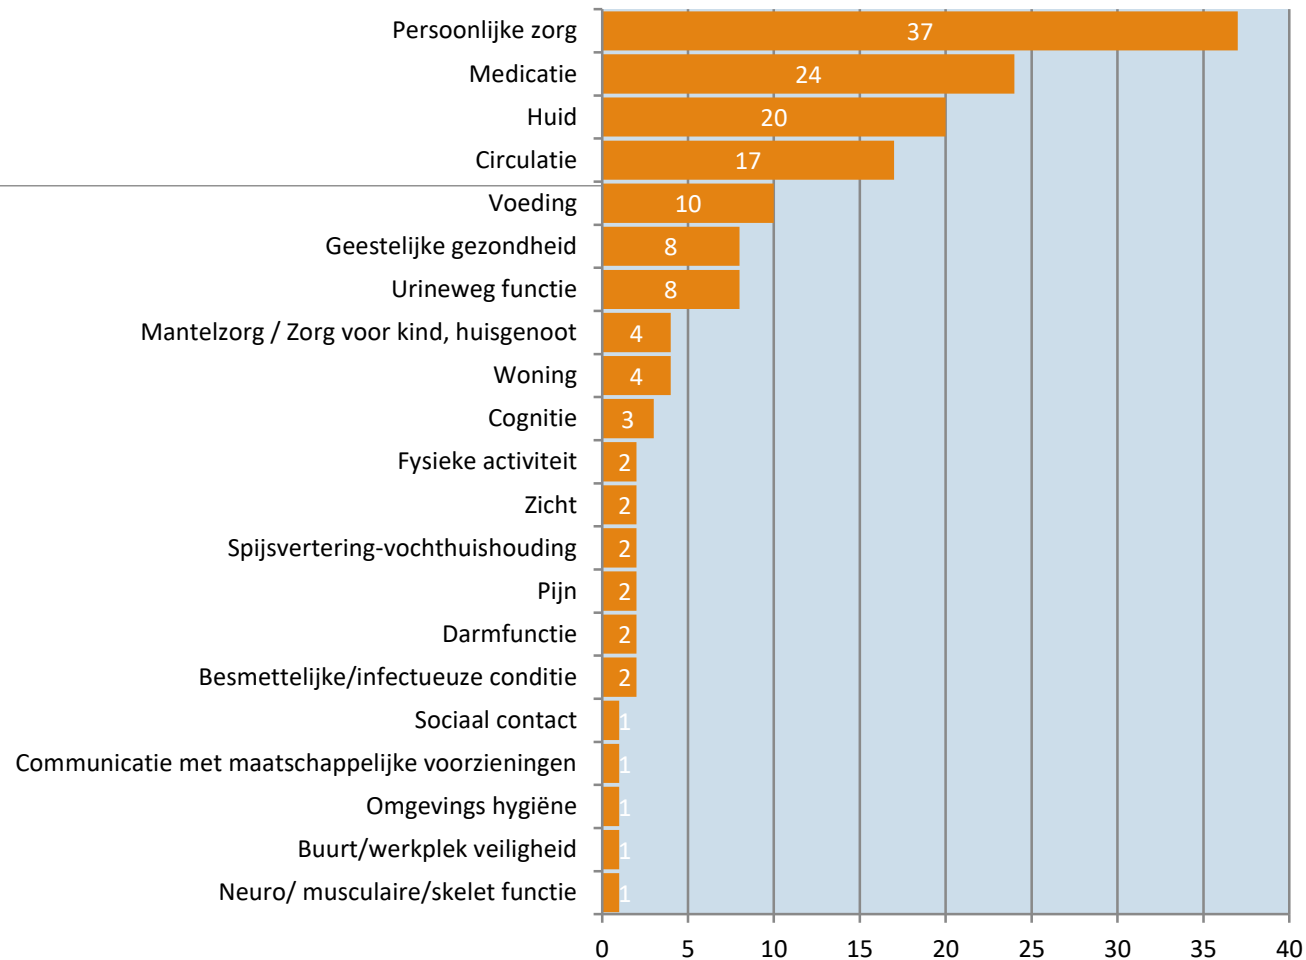

Verdeling naar domeinen

Verdeling naar soorten acties aantal cliënten per aandachtsgebied

Questions....

